Peace Team. Here are some charts from the 7-16-25 NY open session.

I did not place any trades, yet learned a lot:0)

I am working with "Time Based Liquidity" and Value Areas.

"Areas of Interest" trading considers Key levels including 4 hour, 1 hour and 15 min Fair Value gaps, as well as any "Inflection Points" (an FVG through a structure level).

If price returns to these areas, we watch for a response (Smart Money push).

If price reaches a key level, then how does it respond to the level? Bullish or bearish? Learning along. Peace.
