Peace. Here are the charts journaling from 1-21-26 if U dig. There was economic news (a speech) during the trading window that I am with the charts, so just listened to the Live stream, and had a chat with the AI Trade assistant (coach).

The main thing I learned was that with the 5 min and 15 min opening range, to be aware that any FVG through a level is often a “Manipulation FVG”, so the retest is the highest probability trade (not the IFVG of a Manipulation FVG either, which is different from working with key levels). Cool. Onwards and upwards. Peace.
