

“Relax your Shoulders” –

Intro – relax, it’s all to tha good. Respect and Peace (un-named artists ☺) ...and guys if you ever pick up hate from my direction, it ain’t us. Thanks for helping save my life. Some folks should be unplugged. Peace time ta take this ovah now, too many shoulders hurtin’ ow, time ta let em’ know it’s all love, the way and the Tao of life, the band phenomenon, messages help me carry on, never stress it, we’re here for life, thanks Nas.

We don’t mean to seem like know it alls, or in the air heads, but the topic is reality here or there Feds know that we all friends and let remember that, much love to 9 to 5’rs be good whereavah ya at.

We dig the lunch rooms community except the mental madness is death to the mind, diplomat immunity. The energy confusing me, we re-adjust together, trust in special people consciousness, cool that’s renewing me.

It ain’t a choose and see, because we already know it takes years to clear it up, so pray for peace, reachin’ keeping doin’ things, people keep your power please, condemnations try ta doubt, so chill and be glad for all the Killer B’s...

Chorus: Relax the Shoulders...here’s something you can chill to...nothin’ gonna trip, take it slow...don’t stress, yup, cool dude. (2 times) seems like we’re really here to mediate between the run’s and the hood, no not me, of course understood, done what we could, who is this? Nobody, just a beat and a rhyme an outcast head nodding.

Just anotha save the world rap, because it hurts or let it go, chill zip zap a dee doo trap, know it’s big money on both sides, God’s thing or belly of the beast, knowin’ how it goes, each teach.

One, yes, like we said, one what? They ask, lets investigate, invisible presence persons essence, life mate, all of us around, seek ta find tha word, love yourself God's child, visuals or sound.

Take a moment to chill, calm down...

Chorus: Relax the Shoulders...here's something you can chill to...nothin' gonna trip, take it slow...don't stress, yup, cool dude. (2 times)

Cool guys...some same old stuff.....just try to stay on the positive and much love....
